

Fixed Income and Climate Risk

Afternoon Tea

September 2020

You are invited to join Cameron Hume, in association with Pensions for Purpose, AFM and Atchison Consultants, for a virtual afternoon tea on Tuesday 15 September.

At Cameron Hume, we pride ourselves on being our clients' investment partner and we seek creative fixed income investment and cash management solutions for sustainable returns. Addressing climate risk is a key investment consideration.

Guy Cameron, Chief Investment Officer will explain how climate risk and other ESG factors can be integrated into portfolio management, and how clients can benefit from modern, policy-based exclusions.

The afternoon tea will start at 16:30 and will also include commentary from Karen Shackleton, Head of Pensions for Purpose and opportunity for your questions.

Please RSVP asap as places are limited.

We hope you can join us for a collaborative discussion.
